AWARD

(Passed on this 16 day of June, 2009)

1. By order dated 17-5-2002, the Government of Goa in exercise of powers under Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, has referred the following dispute for adjudication of this Tribunal.

“(1) Whether the action of the management of M/s. ACI Egg. Division, Corlim Industrial Estate, Corlim, Ilhas, Goa in refusing employment to Ms. Rohini Gaude and Ms. Deepika Naik, both operators, with effect from 15-11-2001, is legal and justified?

(2) If not, to what relief the two workmen are entitled?”

2. The workmen Ms. Rohini Gaude and Ms. Deepika Naik who are represented by the Party I union were employed with the Party II which was engaged in manufacture of plastic bottles and other products. These two workmen were appointed in February, 1988 as Operators. The grievance of the Party I is that the Party II refused employment to these two workmen, w.e.f. 15-11-2001 without any justifiable reasons. The Party I has stated that the termination of these two workmen is in violation of the provisions of Section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act. The Party I has therefore claimed that the termination is illegal and that the workmen are entitled for reinstatement with full back wages and continuity in service.

3. The Party II has claimed that the Party I union has no locus standi to espouse the dispute on behalf of the workmen. The Party II further claimed that on account of lack of orders and resultant loss incurred, running of the factory was uneconomical and as such the employer decided to reorganize the working of the establishment. On redistribution and reorganization of the workmen, the services of two employees in the category of work-lady were found to be surplus. Hence the services of these two workmen were terminated w.e.f. 14-1-01. The Party II has further stated that two workmen were issued a cheque towards legal dues but these two workmen refused to accept the same. The Party II has stated that despite their best efforts it could not run the factory and ultimately the factory was closed from 20-11-2001 and services of all workmen were terminated from 21-11-2001 on payment of their legal dues. The Party II has denied that the termination of the workmen is illegal. The Party II has stated that these two workmen are not entitled for any reliefs.

4. Based on the aforesaid pleadings, issues were framed

1. Whether the Party I/Union proves that it has the locus standi to espouse the dispute on behalf of the workmen and represent them in the present dispute?
2. Whether the Party I/Union proves that the workmen Ms. Rohini Gaude was appointed as an Operator on 2-2-1982 and the workman Ms. Deepika Naik was appointed as an Operator on 10-2-1982 and that their last drawn wages were Rs. 2,648/- and Rs. 2,623/- respectively?
3. Whether the Party I/Union proves that the Party II refused employment to the workmen w.e.f. 15-11-2001 in violation of the provisions of Sec. 25F of the I. D. Act, 1947?
4. Whether the Party I/Union proves that the action of the Party II in refusing employment to the workmen from 15-11-2001 is illegal and unjustified?

5. Whether the Party II proves that its factory is closed from 20-11-2001?

6. Whether the workmen are entitled to any relief?

7. What Award?

5. The parties did not adduce evidence, instead both parties appeared before this Tribunal and stated that they have settled the matter amicably. They have filed an application at Exb. 13. wherein they have stated as under.

- i) That both the parties namely M/s. ACI Engineering Division Party II and the said Union on behalf of the said Workpersons held consultations through their Advocates and have arrived at the settlement of the dispute as under.
- ii) That Workperson above named had filed Claim Application under No. LCC/46/2002 along with 13 other workpersons claiming legal dues due to each of them from the Party II abovenamed.
- iii) That the workpersons abovenamed had filed Claim Application under No. LCC/46/2002 along with 13 other workpersons claiming legal dues due to each of them from the Party II abovenamed.
- iv) That the Party II abovenamed has paid and workpersons abovenamed have received the amount of legal dues due to each of them in full and final settlement of their claim arising out of the termination of their services.
- v) In consideration of the payment as aforesaid and as agreed in the settlement terms filed in said Claim Application No. LCC/46/2002 dated 2-5-2005, Union on behalf of the workpersons agree that termination of their services by the management of M/s. ACI Engineering Division Party II abovenamed with effect from 15-11-2001 is legal and justified and that the same is in settlement of all their demands, claim including claim for re-instatement with Party II raised under the present reference.

6. A perusal of the application at Exb. 13 clearly indicates that the Party II has paid the dues of the Party I workman represented by the Party I union and the workmen have accepted the said dues as full and final settlement of their claim. It is therefore evident that the dispute between the parties is amicably resolved and consequently dispute referred to this Tribunal by the Government by order dated 27-5-02 does not survive.

Inform the Government accordingly.

AWARD

(Passed on this 6th day of July, 2009)

1. By order dated 4-10-96, the Government of Goa, in exercise of powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, has referred the following dispute for adjudication to this Tribunal.

“(1) Whether the action of the management of M/s. Panaji Municipal Council, Panaji, Goa in refusing employment to Shri Adivappa Harijan Sweeper, with effect from 16-8-93, is legal and justified?

(2) If not, what relief the above workman is entitled to?”

2. The Party I/workman has stated that he was working for Party II as a sweeper. He was given break in service w.e.f. 16-8-93. The Party I has stated that he was not issued any notice. The Party I has stated that the action of the Party II is illegal. The Party I has therefore claimed reinstatement, with back wages and continuity in service.

3. The Party II has stated that the Party I was engaged as a daily wage sweeper as per the exigencies of work. The Party II has stated that the services of Party I were not required w.e.f. 16-8-1993. The Party II has stated that the Party I was purely a casual worker engaged on daily basis and such engagement does not create any right in favour of the workman. The Party II has denied that the Party I was engaged continuously for five years.

4. Based on the aforesaid pleadings following issues were framed:

1. Whether the Party I proves that he worked with the Party II continuously for five years prior to refusal of employment to him on 16-8-1993?
2. Whether the Party I proves that the action of the Party II in refusing employment to him w.e.f. 16-8-93 is illegal and unjustified?
3. Whether the Party II proves that there is no industrial dispute and hence the reference is null and void?
4. Whether the Party I is entitled to any relief?
5. What Award?

5. The Party I/workman examined himself in support of his claim. The Party II has not adduced any evidence. The Party I expired during the pendency of the proceeding and by application dated 29-7-03 the legal representatives of the Party I have been brought on record.

6. Learned advocate, Shri P. J. Kamat has filed written arguments on behalf of the Party I. Learned advocate, Shri A. Shaikh has filed written arguments on behalf of the Party II. I have purused the records and considered the arguments advanced by the respective parties and my findings on the aforesaid issues are as under:

7. Issue No. 1: The Party I was engaged by Party II as sweeper. The Party I had claimed that he had worked for the Party II continuously for five years prior to his break in service w.e.f. 16-8-93. In his evidence before the Tribunal, Party I has deposed that he was employed in the year 1991. He has stated that he was not issued any appointment letter. He has further deposed that after giving a break for about one month he was taken back in service for about one year. He has deposed that thereafter he was given another break of one month and was once again taken back in service. He has deposed that he was given last break on 16-8-93.

8. The evidence of Party I Adivappa Harijan clearly indicates that the Party II initially engaged him in the year 1991 and his last break in service was in the year 1993. The evidence of Party I Adivappa Harijan also indicates that he was given several breaks in service from 1991 to 1993. Thus, the evidence of Party I Adivappa Harijan falsifies his claim that he was in continuous service for five years prior to 16-8-93. Hence, issue No. 1 is answered in the negative.

9. Issue No. 2: The Party I has claimed that the action of the Party II in refusing employment to him w.e.f. 16-8-93 is illegal and unjustified. The pleadings in the claim statement indicate that the Party I had challenged the legality of the action of the Party II in refusing employment on the grounds that no notice was issued to him, that the services of the juniors were regularized and that he had put in continuous service of five years prior to 16-8-93. In his evidence before the Tribunal Party I Adivappa Harijan has deposed that when he was given break in service on 16-8-93, he was neither given a notice nor paid any retrenchment compensation. He has deposed that he had worked continuously for one year. This statement indicates that the Party I has sought to challenge his termination on the ground of non-compliance of provisions of Section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is well settled that when the workman alleges contravention of Section 25F of the Act, the initial burden of establishing the factum of continuous work for 240 days in a year is on the workman. In the instant case, the Party I had made a vague statement in his claim statement that he was in continuous service for five years prior to 16-8-93. This statement is proved false by his own evidence adduced before the Tribunal. As stated earlier, the evidence of Party I indicates that he was given several breaks between 1991 to 1993. It was under these circumstances that the Party I was required to prove that he was in continuous service of 240 days prior to 16-8-93. The Party I has made a vague statement that he was in continuous service of one year prior to 16-8-93. The Party I has not stated the date on which he was last re-employed prior to 16-8-93. The Party I has also neither examined any witness nor adduced any other evidence to prove that he was in continuous service as contemplated u/s 25 B of the Industrial Disputes Act. Having failed to adduce such evidence, the Party I cannot allege contravention of Section 25F of the Act.

10. It is also to be noted that the Party I was appointed as a daily wage sweeper. The Party II had averred that the services of the Party I were engaged as per the exigencies of work. The Party I has stated in his cross that he used to sweep the roads and clean drains at the place stated by the supervisor. He has deposed that the supervisor used to send him to clear construction material dumped on the roadside by private contractors. He has further stated that sometimes the counsellors used to request the supervisor to clear the roads in their wards and that the supervisor used to send him to clear the roads in their wards. He has admitted that cleaning work of roads and drains increases or decreases depending on the season, festival etc. He has admitted that Party II engages more workers when the workload is more. The evidence of the Party I also indicates that he was engaged by Party II during the pendency of the proceedings and was again given break when there was no work. The aforesaid evidence clearly indicates that the services of the Party I were not engaged for fixed work but his services were engaged depending on the exigencies of work and he was being paid for the work done on daily basis. In the case of Bhagat Sanchar Nigam Ltd., v/s Balasaheb Maruti Poojari reported in 2006 (6) Bom. C. R. 517, the division bench of Bombay High Court has held that the employer is not under a statutory obligation to issue notice termination to a casual labourer and follow the procedure as laid down under Section 25F of the Act merely because he has worked continuously for 240 days. Hence, even assuming that the Party I was in continuous service for 240 days, being a casual labourer, the Party II was not under obligation to issue termination notice to him. Hence, refusal of employment is not illegal for want of notice. Issue No. 2 is answered in the negative.

11. Issue No. 3: The Party II has stated that the dispute raised by the Party I is not an industrial dispute. In terms of Section 2(k) of the Act, 'Industrial dispute' means any dispute or difference between employers and employees or between employers and workmen, or between workmen and workmen, which is connected with the employment or non-employment or the terms of employment or with the conditions of labour of any person. In the instant case, vide letter dated 2-9-1993 (Exb. W-1) the Party I who was an employee of the Party II had raised a dispute regarding his refusal of employment by the Party II employer. Perusal to this the Labour Commissioner had commenced conciliation proceedings. Notice was duly served on the Party II and the Party II had participated in the proceedings. The conciliation proceedings had ended in failure and on receipt of the failure report at (Exb. W2), the Government has referred the dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication. The dispute raised by the Party I and referred by the Government is between the employer and employee, pertains to the non-employment of the Party II, and is an industrial dispute within the meaning of Section 2(k) of the Act. Hence, the issue No. 3 is answered in the negative.

12. Issue No. 4: The Party I has failed to prove that the action of the Party II in refusing employment to him is illegal and unjustified. Hence, the Party I is not entitled for any relief. Issue No. 4 is answered accordingly.

Under the circumstances and in view of discussion supra, I pass the following order.

Order

The action of M/s. Panaji Municipal Council, Panaji, Goa in refusing employment to Shri Adivappa Harijan, Sweeper w.e.f. 16-8-93 is held to be legal and justified. The Party I or his heirs are not entitled for any relief.

Inform the Government accordingly.

AWARD

(Passed on this 31st day of March, 2009)

By order dated 20-11-90 the Government of Goa, in exercise of powers conferred under Section 10(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, has referred to this Industrial Tribunal the following dispute for adjudication;

"1. Whether the action of the management of M/s. Industria Nacional de Telhas in refusing to concede to the demand of their workmen for 20% bonus for the accounting year 1988-89 is justified?

2. If not, to what relief the workmen are entitled?"

2. On receipt of the reference notices were issued to both parties. Party I filed his claim statement at Exb. 9. The Party II filed its written statement at Exb. 12.

3. The workmen represented by the Party I/union were the employees of the Party II which was engaged in the business of manufacture and self of roof tiles. The Party II had paid bonus at the rate of 16% for the year 1986-87 and 1987-88. The Party I has stated that during the accounting year 1988-89 the Party II had made huge profits and as such they had demanded the payment of bonus @ 20%. However, the Party II offered bonus @ 8.33%. The Party I has stated that their demand for the bonus of 20% is legal and justifiable. The Party I has therefore claimed bonus @ 20% for the accounting year 1988-89.

4. The Party II has denied that it had made huge profits and had claimed that it had paid 16% bonus for the year 1986-87 and 1987-88 only to maintain industrial peace. The Party II has stated that it was justified in paying the bonus of 8.33% for the accounting year 1988-89. The Party II has stated that the Party I is not entitled for any additional bonus for the accounting year 1988-89.

5. Based on the aforesaid pleading, following issues were framed:

1. Does Party I/workmen prove that they are entitled for bonus at the rate of 20% for the year 1988-89 as claimed?
2. What is due to Party I/workmen, if any?
3. What Award or Order?

6. Both parties have adduced evidence. Learned advocate, Shri T. Pereira has argued on behalf of the Party I. Learned advocate Shri Kamat has argued on behalf of the Party II. I have perused the records and considered the arguments advanced by the respective parties and my findings on the aforesaid issues are as under:

7. Issue No. 1: It is not in dispute that the workmen represented by the Party I/union were employed with the Party II which is engaged in the business of manufacture and sale of roof tiles. It is also not in dispute that the Party I/workmen were paid bonus @ 16% for the accounting years 1986-87 and 1987-88. The question is whether the Party I workmen are entitled for 20% bonus for the accounting year 1988-89. In support of its claim the Party I/union has examined Shri Anthony Fernandes/General Secretary of the Local Committee and Shri Anand Betkikar the General Secretary of the union. The witness, Shri Anthony Fernandes has deposed that when the Party II had paid bonus for the previous accounting year the rate of tiles was Rs. 1,400 per thousand tiles and that when they had claimed bonus @ 20% the rate of tiles was Rs. 1,700/-. He has stated that the production of the Party II was increased to such an extent that there was no place to stock tiles. He has stated that they have claimed for 20% bonus is reasonable. In his cross examination the witness has denied the suggestion that the Party II was not in a financial position to pay the bonus @ 20%. Apart from the bare statement of this witness there is absolutely no evidence to prove that the price of the tiles has gone up or that the production had increased to a large extent.

8. It may be mentioned here that the Party II is a partnership and the balance sheet and the profit and loss account have been audited by the Chartered Accountant, Shri D. V. Bale, who has been examined by the Party II. In his evidence before the Tribunal the witness, Shri D. V. Bale has deposed that he is the auditor of the Party II since 1986 and that he had audited the accounts of the Party II for the year 1988-89. He has identified his signature on the certified copy of the balance sheet for the year ending 31st March, 1989, for the accounting year 1989-90. The said balance sheet is at Exb. 24. He has deposed that the bonus payable by the Party II has been calculated on the basis of the said balance sheet. He has produced the bonus calculation for the accounting year ending 31-3-89 and the same is at Exb. 25. He has also produced the bonus register maintained by the Party II in Form A and B from the year 1985 and the same is at Exb. 26. This witness has deposed that for the year 1988-89 the amount allocable for payment of bonus was Rs. 21,776/-. He has deposed that as per the payment of minimum bonus, the minimum bonus payable for the accounting year 1988-89 was Rs. 41,667/-. The total deficiency therefore was Rs. 19,891/- and the total set off carry forward from the previous three years was Rs. 1,21,842/-. He has denied the suggestion that the bonus calculation shown in Exb. 25 was not done as per the provisions of the Act. He has also denied the suggestion that certain items which were required to be added back were not added and that the items mentioned under the heading deductions, under Section 6 of the Act were not in accordance with the provisions of the Act. He has also denied that impermissible deductions were made in the previous year under the heading depreciation and tax of partners and that impermissible calculations in the previous years had affected the bonus calculations in the subsequent years.

9. Learned advocate, Shri Pereira has in his written argument has challenged the accuracy of the bonus register by stating that the Party II has included several inadmissible items so as to reduce the allocable surplus. It may be mentioned here that apart from the bare suggestions there is absolutely no evidence on record to show that the deductions were inflated and that the allocable surplus was reduced by including inadmissible items. Section 23 of the Payment of Bonus Act provides that during the course of proceedings before the Tribunal under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 of the nature specified in the Section 22 of the Act and the duly audited balance sheet and the profit and loss account of an employer are produced then the authority has to presume the statements and particulars contained in such balance sheet and profit and loss account to be accurate. In the instant case the balance sheet and the profit and loss account have been duly audited by a qualified auditor and as such in the absence of challenge to the said profit and loss account in the manner required by law, the statement and particulars contained in the said balance sheet and the profit and loss account have to be presumed to be accurate. In the case of workmen of India Cement Ltd., v/s India Cements Ltd. and another reported in 1986 II LLN 959 the workmen had challenged the profit and loss accounts of the employer stating in general nature that the management had included in accounts many inadmissible items so as to reduce the allocable surplus while considering the question whether the challenge is legal, the Madras High Court has held that where the workmen have not challenged the accuracy of any particular item but have merely attacked the statements in general terms with reference to the method of accounting and have also not moved the authority for directions, for clarification, the presumption of accuracy is held as not rebutted and the authority is justified in disposing of the proceedings on the basis of such statements. It is held that the presumption of accuracy of audited balance sheet and profit and loss account is a statutory presumption and that requires acceptance. The burden to disprove accuracy lies on the party dispute. In the instant case the Party I has not rebutted statutory presumption of accuracy and as such the statements and particulars contained in the audited balance sheet and profit and loss account are held to be accurate. The said balance sheet indicates that amount of allocable surplus for the payment of bonus was Rs. 21,776/- and as for the payment of bonus Act the minimum bonus payable was Rs. 41,667/- with total deficiency of Rs. 19,891/-. Hence the action of the Party II in declaring minimum bonus @ 8.33% is held to be legal and justified. Issue No. 1 is therefore answered in the negative. Consequently the Party I/workmen are not entitled for any dues.

Under the circumstances, and in view of discussion supra, I pass the following order:

ORDER

The action of the management of M/s. Industria Nacional de Telhas in refusing to concede to the demand of their workmen for 20% bonus for the accounting year 1988-89 is held to be justified. The Party I/workmen are not entitled for any relief.

No order as to costs. Inform the Government accordingly.

ORDER

(12th day of June, 2009)

1. The aforesaid dispute was decided by award dated 31/3/2009. It is noticed that there is a typographical error in para 1 of the award wherein the dispute referred to this Tribunal for adjudication is erroneously typed as.

"(1) Whether the action of the management of M/s. Gurudas T. Malgaonkar, Mapusa, Goa, popularly known as M/s. Malsons, Mapusa, Goa in refusing employment to their workman Shri Gangaram Vishnu Satardekar, Cobbler, with effect from 31-12-2002, is legal and justified?

If not, what relief the workman is entitled to?"

Instead of

"(1) Whether the action of the management of M/s. Industria Nacional de Telhas in refusing to concede to the demand of their workmen for 20% bonus for the accounting year 1988-89 is justified.

If not, to what relief the workmen are entitled ?"

2. This is a typographical/clerical error and the same needs to be rectified. Hence, para 1 of the award stands corrected/amended by deleting the words

"(1) Whether the action of the management of M/s. Gurudas T. Malgaonkar, Mapusa, Goa, popularly known as M/s. Malsons, Mapusa, Goa in refusing employment to their workman Shri Gangaram Vishnu Satardekar, Cobbler, with effect from 31-12-2002, is legal and justified?

If not, what relief the workman is entitled to?"

The dispute referred to this Tribunal and which is stated in para 1 of the award shall now read as under:

"(1) Whether the action of the management of M/s. Industria Nacional de Telhas in refusing to concede to the demand of their workmen for 20% bonus for the accounting year 1988-89 is justified?

If not, to what relief the workmen are entitled?"

3. A corrected copy of the award be placed on record. Copies of the correct award be forwarded to the Government and the Parties to the proceeding for information.

Notification

No. 22/10/2008-RD

Whereas by Government Notification No. 22/10/2008-RD dated 22-07-2008 published on page 478 of Series II No. 18 of the Official Gazette, dated 31-07-2008 and in two newspapers (1) "Navhind Times" dated 26-07-2008 (2) "Goa Doot" dated 26-07-2008, it was notified under Section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Central Act 1 of 1894) (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), that the land, specified in the Schedule appended to the said Notification was likely to be needed for the public purpose, viz. Land Acquisition for construction of an extension to the School Building of Government High School, Shristhal, Canacona.

And whereas, the Government of Goa (hereinafter referred to as "the Government") after considering the report made under sub-section (2) of Section 5-A of the said Act is satisfied that the land specified in the Schedule hereto is needed for the public purpose specified above (hereinafter referred to as "the said land").

Now, therefore, the Government hereby declares, under Section 6 of the said Act that the said land is required for the public purpose specified above.

2. The Government also hereby appoints, under clause (c) of Section 3 of the said Act, the Deputy Collector & SDO, Quepem, Goa, to perform the functions of a Collector, South Goa District, Margao-Goa, for all proceedings hereinafter to be taken in respect of the said land and directs him under Section 7 of the said Act to take order for the acquisition of the said land.

3. A plan of the said land can be inspected at the Office of the said Deputy Collector & SDO, Quepem, Goa, till the award is made under Section 11.

Department of Social Welfare

Directorate of Social Welfare

Notification

No. 4/2/2008-SWD/3606

Whereas a Writ Petition bearing No. 621 of 2007 was filed by one Mr. Iqbal Mohidin Shaikh against the State Government of Goa and another in the Hon'ble High Court of Bombay at Panaji, praying for Constitution of the Wakf Board (hereinafter called the "said Writ Petition");

And whereas, upon the submission made by the Government that the Government proposed to establish the Wakf Board for the State within 3 months, the Hon'ble High Court vide its order dated 4-2-2008, disposed the said Writ Petition;

And whereas, the Government was pleased to establish the Goa Board of Wakfs vide the Government Notification No. 4/2/2008-SWD/500 dated 2-5-2008, published in the Official Gazette (Extraordinary), Series II, No. 6, dated 8-05-2008 (hereinafter called the "said notification").

And whereas, in the course of time, the Government received representations from persons belonging to the Muslim Community, urging the Government to withdraw the said Notification constituting the Wakf Board;

And whereas, the Government examined the matter and taken a conscious decision of not setting up the Wakf Board in the State of Goa on the ground that the people of the State of Goa, irrespective of their Caste, Class and religion, are governed by the Uniform Civil Code. Other Central Legislations dealing with the personal laws like the Hindu Marriage Act, the Hindu Succession Act, the Hindu Adoption and Maintenance Act, Hindu Religious and Endowment Act, the Christian Marriage Act, the Indian Succession Act, the Parsi Marriage Act, etc. were not made applicable to Goa because the Citizens of Goa were governed by the Common Civil Code. The provisions of the Wakf Act, 1995 (Central Act 43 of 1995), though extended to the State of Goa, remained inoperative in the State of Goa, in the absence of any Wakf property in existence in the State of Goa and that the Muslim Community in the State of Goa is not divided according to their sect, and no Wakf existed in the State, nor Uniform Civil Code empowers the Muslim Community to create such Wakf, and therefore the provisions of Wakf Act, 1995 could not be implemented in the State of Goa;

And whereas, accordingly, Miscellaneous Civil Application No. 46 of 2009 in Writ Petition No. 621 of 2007 was filed by the Government in the Hon'ble Court of Bombay at Panaji with a prayer to clarify that the Order dated 4-2-2008 passed by Hon'ble High Court would not come in the way of the State Government in rescinding and or modifying the said Notification;

And whereas, the Hon'ble High Court was pleased to dispose off the said Miscellaneous Civil application No. 46 of 2009 vide its Order dated 1-4-2009 and held that on whatever grounds the State wants to modify/rescind or amend the Notification dated 2-5-2008, the State cannot be prevented in this behalf and that the Order of the High Court dated 4-02-2008, shall not come in the way of the State Government in modifying and or rescinding the said Notification. The Hon'ble High Court also held that Legality and validity of such Notification, if any, can be challenged by the Respondent, who was the original Petitioner, by taking appropriate action as deemed fit;

And whereas, the Government has decided to rescind the said Notification.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 13, sub-sections (1) and (3) of Section 14, Rule 8 of the Goa Wakf Rules, 2002, read with Section 21 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (Central Act 10 of 1897), Government hereby rescind, the said Notification dated 2-5-2008, published in the Official Gazette (Extraordinary), Series II No. 6 dated 8-05-2008 with immediate effect.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.

N. B. Narvekar, ex officio Joint Secretary & Director of Social Welfare.
